Q1. What are the key principles that you adopt when using technology in the classroom?

1	I try to provide the children with a toolbox of ICT tools and skills so they will be able to choose the most appropriate one to use when needed.	Sep 12, 2011 9:02 PM
2	We use Computers throughout the day as an important part of our classroom learning. Cameras, CD players are also important as well as using the data projector for class lessons. Students are willing to teach each other.	Sep 12, 2011 7:18 PM
3	Thinking linked to Inquiry Life long learning Actively involved Learning skills Connect with others through information and communication Safety issues	Sep 7, 2011 12:41 AM
4	Use it across all learning areas, Use as another teaching/learning tool, try to use as diverse as possible various IT equipment	Sep 5, 2011 8:06 PM
5	Using technology in the class room is integrated with other curriculum areas. Choosing programmes to ensure opportunities for incorporating skills from the school Year 0-2 checklist.	Sep 4, 2011 9:40 PM
6	High Expectations, Learning to learn, community engagement	Sep 4, 2011 8:41 PM
7	Co-operation, using language symbols and texts, techie expert	Sep 4, 2011 8:04 PM

Q2. What is your pedagogy on the use of ICT in the classroom? Has it changed since being part of the ICTPD project?

1	Yes it has, I believe we need to equip our 21st century learners for the 21st century	Sep 12, 2011 9:02 PM
2	My students are becoming very skilled and confident with some of our computer programmes and many are now able to teach other students or assist in other classrooms. It is an important classroom teaching and learning skill. TKI web site an excellent Teacher resource. Since the start of the ICTPD programme we have been given so many different programmes- it has really enhanced our classroom learning. The Rachel Boyd PD really showed us what we could do .	Sep 12, 2011 7:18 PM
3	Self regulated learning teaching informed by data and needs teaching as inquiry WALTs success criteria High expectations	Sep 7, 2011 12:41 AM
4	For students to be able to confidently use ICT to get information and communicate information to others through a variety of areas. Students need to be able to use ICT to their full potential to fully be involved in learning for the 21st century. The ICTPD project has allowed me to keep upto date with new initiatives and research.	Sep 5, 2011 8:06 PM
5	ICT is an intergral learning tool to enable children to live and succeed in the future.	Sep 4, 2011 9:40 PM
6	I used to think that ICT is mainly about computers. After being part of the project, I have integrated thinking skills etc as part of my daily plan instead of having a specific time for ICT on Fridays.	Sep 4, 2011 8:41 PM
7	Nope. I like ICT but has the potential to take too much from the holistic and natural learning potential that occur within a classroom. However I do enjoy teaching using ICT to support the learning.	Sep 4, 2011 8:04 PM

Q3. In what ways (if any) have your teaching strategies changed as a result of being part of the ICT PD programme?

1	Most of my day involves the use of the interactive whiteboard and the internet. I am lucky enough to have the infrastructure to be able to use these effectively.	Sep 12, 2011 9:02 PM
2	The computer is used throughout the day for Maths (Mathletics, statistics,), writing, research, spelling , presenting work (Powerpoint) .Groups are timetabled throughout the day as part of the class programme. The Data projector has been a great classroom tool for students presenting and sharing work as. An excellent tool for Student Lead Conferences.	Sep 12, 2011 7:18 PM
3	Using the Thinking Tools linked to inquiry. ICT draws on knowledge from a wide range of disciplines. Interactive White Board has changed my teaching strategies and class management More flexible and know change is constant	Sep 7, 2011 12:41 AM
4	Using more online communication	Sep 5, 2011 8:06 PM
5	There is a purpose for upskilling myself as a teacher, facilitator and learner. I have become more focussed on providing learning outcomes and the children will know they have done them in ICT. I use the children to teach each other and we can revisit skills together.	Sep 4, 2011 9:40 PM
6	children are using a variety of tools for presentation instead of just using powerpoint. Reading activities involved a lot of thinkers keys, hats, blooms taxonomy etc	Sep 4, 2011 8:41 PM
7	I know of some more programmes.	Sep 4, 2011 8:04 PM
